

Miss Black Texas USA Preteen 2012 Camryn Ned

Miss Black Texas USA Preteen 2012 Camryn M. Ned is a 7th grade Honor Roll Student at Spillane Middle School in Cypress, TX. She is involved in several organizations such as Theater Arts, Builders Club, and plays on the Volley Ball Team. Camryn was also a member of Prodigy “Undefeated” Cheer Squad. She is a member of Bellavista Baptist Church where she is on the Praise Dance Team, Sunday School Refreshment Committee, and sings in the Youth Choir.

Camryn enjoys giving back to the community and supporting a good cause. She has run several fun runs to raise money for organizations such as The American Heart Association. Camryn is also a member of “Partner In Hope” at St. Jude Children’s Research Hospital. At age 7, Camryn experienced losing her father to cancer. During his battle he encouraged her to stay strong and always know GOD is with her. His strength inspired her to share her story. Camryn's teachers were impressed with how she handled her circumstances and asked her on several occasions for her to comfort her peers that experienced a loss. Because of their request, Camryn decided to create a conference line call "Cam's Cope Line." The conference line is for her peers that have a similar story and need someone to talk to.

As the "2012 Miss Black Preteen Texas USA", Camryn plans to continue enforcing her platform "Helping Adolescents Cope with the Loss of a Love One," in the community and one day around the world. Her goal is to become a mentor to several youth and spend quality time engaging them with positive experiences that will help them live out their dreams.

In the future, Camryn plans to attend college and utilize her life experiences to help others. She believes we all have a destiny and purpose. Encouraging each other will make it easier to overcome the obstacles we may face.
