

Miss Black Texas USA Talented Teen 2012 Lauren Clemons

Miss Black Texas USA Talented Teen Lauren Clemons is a freshman at Westside High School. The intelligent, athletic, role model is a member of the French Honor Society and member of the Black Student Union. As Miss Black Texas USA Talented Teen Lauren plans to implement her platform “You are Beautiful” by raising the self esteem of girls by speaking to various groups to let them know that they are beautiful inside and out. When not serving her community, she is very activate in numerous organization including but not limited to Jump Start Cheer and Dance Academy, Girl Scouts of America, Bellaire Dance Academy, and Kids in Dance. She is an avid dancer and budding actress having performed with the Ensemble Theatre “You’re a Good Man Charlie Brown” and Alley Theatre “A Christmas Carol”. She is an active member of Mount Corinth Missionary Baptist Church, where she currently sings with the youth choir and dances on the praise team. Although she has a busy schedule, she still makes time for friends and family.